The oceans may well be Earth’s final frontier. These dark and sometimes mysterious waters cover 71 percent of the surface area of the globe and have yet to be fully explored. Under the waves, a watery world of frail splendor, foreboding creatures, vast mountains, and sights beyond imagination awaits. Now this powerful resource has been developed for three educational levels!

Learning about the oceans and their hidden worlds can be exciting and rewarding—the abundance and diversity of life, the wealth of resources, the latest discoveries, and the simple mysteries that have intrigued explorers and scientists for centuries. A better understanding of our oceans ensures careful stewardship of their grandeur and beauty for future generations, and leads to a deeper respect for the delicate balance of life that God created on planet Earth.

The Wonders of Creation series published by Master Books is a favorite among many homeschoolers. That is why, with the publisher’s permission, we’ve created this student notebook that you can use alongside the textbook. It’s a great way to help your students go deeper in their understanding and retention of the material and provides room for notebooking, diagramming, and more.

Copy Nehemiah 9:6 in your best handwriting.

"You are the Lord, you alone. You have made heaven, the heaven of heavens, with all their host, the earth and all that is on it, the seas and all that is in them; and you preserve all of them; and the host of heaven worships you." Nehemiah 9:6

Draw the map found on pages 8-9 and label the bodies of water as shown.
