

SCENES FROM THE NEW TESTAMENT

BIBLICAL ART APPRECIATION

Scenes From the New Testament: Biblical Art Appreciation

©2021, Daily Skill Building

Cover Design: Richele McFarlin, Pretty Perfect Printables

The Bible story text is adapted from The Wonder Book of Bible Stories that was compiled by Logan Marshall, copyright 1904 and 1925. The original is in the public domain.

All rights reserved. No part of this work may be reproduced or distributed in any form by any means—graphic, electronic, or mechanical, including photocopying, recording, taping, or storing in information storage or retrieval systems—without the prior written permission from the publisher.

Original purchaser is granted permission to print copies for use within his or her immediate family only. For co-op licenses, please email support@daily skill building.com.

Table of Contents

Extra Printables for Studying the Bible	4
Recommended Resources.....	5
Zacharias	6
The Nativity	10
Adoration of the Magi.....	13
Jesus in the Temple	16
The Wedding Feast at Cana.....	18
Jesus Cleanses the Temple	20
Christ and the Samaritan Woman	22
The Miraculous Draught of Fishes	25
The Twelve Apostles.....	27
The Sermon on the Mount.....	29
The Centurion.....	31
Young Man of Nain.....	33
The Man Born Blind	35
The Good Shepherd.....	38
The Good Samaritan.....	40
Entry Into Jerusalem.....	42
Gethsemane	45
The Denial of St. Peter	48
The Crucifixion.....	50
The Morning of the Resurrection	54
Healing the Lame Man	56
Stephen, the First Martyr	60
Art Cards	62

Recommended Resources

Famous People Notebook—Hymn Writers: Encourage your student's reading comprehension skills while they learn about the authors of some of the greatest hymns of all time with this Famous People Notebook. Includes text, written narration, comprehension questions, and answer key.

Character Bible Study for Kids: This Character Bible Study is designed for parents to do with their children in grades 4-8. It focuses on 2 Peter 1:1-11 and explores seven character traits discussed there: virtue, knowledge, self-control, godliness, steadfastness, brotherly affection, and love. It includes engaging questions to help you guide your student into exploring the Scriptures and growing in their faith.

Learning About Biblical Feasts—A Study Guide to the Feasts of the Bible for Children & Families: This unit study works great as a family read aloud and includes text, comprehension questions and answers, and written pages for notebooking. At the end of this study, you will have a deeper understanding of the Feasts in the Bible and what the Lord wants to show us through the symbolism used in each one.

Zacharias

At the time when the story of the New Testament begins, the land of Israel, also called the land of Judea, was ruled by a king named Herod. He was the first of several Herods, who at different times ruled either the whole of the land or parts of it. But Herod was not the highest ruler. Many years before this time, the Romans, who came from the city of Rome in Italy, had won all the lands around the Great Sea, the sea which we call the Mediterranean. Above King Herod of Judea was the great king of Rome, ruling over all the lands, and over the land of Judea among them. So Herod, though king of Judea, obeyed his overlord, the emperor at Rome. At the time when this story begins, the emperor at Rome was named Augustus Caesar.

At this time, the land where the Jews lived was full of people. Jerusalem was its largest city, and in Jerusalem was standing the Temple of the Lord, which King Herod had recently rebuilt. It took the place of the old Temple that had been built long ago and had badly needed repaired.

One day, an old priest named Zacharias was leading the service of worship in the Temple. He was standing in front of the golden altar of incense, in the Holy Place. He was holding in his hand a censer, or cup, full of burning coals and incense, while all the people were worshipping in the court of the Temple, outside the court of the Priests, where the great altar of burnt offering stood.

Suddenly, Zacharias saw an angel from the Lord, standing on the right side of the altar of incense. He felt a great fear when he saw this strange being with shining face, but the angel said to him, "Do not be afraid, Zacharias; for I have come from the Lord to bring good news. Your wife Elizabeth shall have a son, and you shall name him John. You shall be made glad, for your son John shall bring joy and gladness to many. He shall be great in the sight of the Lord; and he shall never taste wine nor strong drink as long as he lives; but he shall be filled with God's Holy Spirit. He shall lead many of the people of Israel to the Lord, for he shall go before the Lord in the power of Elijah the prophet, as was promised by Malachi. He shall turn the hearts of the fathers to the children, and those who are disobeying the Lord to do his will."

As Zacharias heard these words, he was filled with wonder and could hardly believe them true. He was now an old man, and his wife Elizabeth was also old, so that they could not expect to have a child. He said to the angel, "How shall I know that your words are true, for I am an old man, and my wife is old?"

"I am Gabriel, who stands in the presence of God," said the angel. "And I was sent from the Lord to speak to you, and to bring you this good news. But because you did not believe my words, you shall become silent and not able to speak until this which I have said comes to pass."

All this time the people outside in the court were wondering why the priest stayed so long in the Temple. When at last he came out, they found that he could not speak a word; but he made signs to them, to tell them that he had seen a vision in the Temple.

After the days of his service were over, Zacharias went to his own home, which was near Hebron, a city of the priests, among the mountains in the south of Judea. When his wife Elizabeth found that God was soon to give her a child, she was very happy and praised the Lord.

About six months after Zacharias saw the vision in the Temple, the same angel Gabriel was sent from the Lord to a city in the part of the land called Galilee, which was in the north. The city to which the angel was sent was Nazareth. There the angel found a young girl named Mary, who was a cousin to Elizabeth. Mary was soon to be married to a good man from the line of King David, though he was not himself a king, nor a rich man. He was a carpenter, living in Nazareth, and his name was Joseph. The angel came into the room where Mary was, and said to her, "Hail, woman favored by the Lord; the Lord is with you!"

Mary was surprised at the angel's words, and wondered what they could mean. Then the angel spoke again, and said, "Do not be afraid, Mary. The Lord has given to you his favor and has chosen you to be the mother of a son whose name shall be Jesus, which means 'salvation,' because he shall save his people from their sins. He shall be great, and shall be called the Son of God; and the Lord shall give to him the throne of his father David. He shall be a king and shall reign over the people of God forever; and of his kingdom there shall be no end."

But Mary could not see how all this was to come to pass. And the angel said to her, "The Holy Spirit shall come upon you, and the power of the Most High God shall be over you; and the child which you shall have shall be called holy, the Son of God."

Then the angel told Mary that her cousin Elizabeth was soon to have a child, even though she and Zacharias were far too old. God would work a miracle for them. When Mary heard all this, she said, "I am the servant of the Lord, to do his will. Let it be to me as you have said."

When the angel had given his message and had gone away, Mary rose up in haste and made a journey to the home of Zacharias and Elizabeth. When Elizabeth saw Mary, she was filled with the Spirit of the Lord, and said, "Blessed are you among women, and blessed among men shall be your son! And why is it that the mother of my Lord comes to visit me? Blessed is the woman who believed that the promise of the Lord to her shall be made true!"

Then Mary was filled with the Spirit of the Lord and broke out into a song of praise. She stayed with Elizabeth for nearly three months, and then went again to her own home at Nazareth.

When it was time, Elizabeth gave birth to a son. The people thought he would be named Zacharias after his father, but his mother said, "No, his name shall be John."

"Why?" they said. "None of your family have ever been named John!"

They asked his father Zacharias, by signs, what name he wished to be given to the child. He asked for something to write upon; and when they brought it, he wrote, "His name is John." Then all at once, the power to speak came back to Zacharias. He spoke, praising and blessing God; and he sang a song of thanks to God, in which he said, "You O child, shall be called a prophet of the Most High; to go before the Lord, and to make ready his ways."

When John was growing up, they sent him out into the desert on the south of the land, and there he stayed until the time came for him to preach to the people; for this child became the great prophet John the Baptist.

Zacharias Writes Down the Name of His Son

by Domenico Ghirlandaio

1486-1490

Zacharias Writes Down the Name of His Son
by Domenico Ghirlandaio
1486-1490